

WARFIELD GREETED IN BUCKEYE STATE

Governor Warmly Welcomed by Ohio Society of Maryland People.

ADDRESS AND A RECEPTION

Home-Coming to Maryland Is Decided on as Result of the Present Tour.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Aug. 9.—A wonderfully warm welcome was accorded to Gov. Edwin Warfield, of Maryland, and his party by the Maryland Society of Ohio, a welcome such as one Marylander extends to another. Among the features of the inspiring greeting, a band in attendance at the private car struck up "Maryland, My Maryland," while 500 people cheered. Rain was falling in torrents, but did not abate the interest of the crowd, and as soon as the handshaking had subsided the committee of reception escorted the new arrivals to the Arcade Hotel.

Like a Triumphant March.
In the hotel parlor the governor was compelled to hold a reception. This reception lasted more than an hour, and Mr. Warfield delighted a great many of his callers by asking if they were kind-folks of such and such an individual, and nine cases out of ten he proved to be a good guesser.

The society had expected to have the governor as its guest at luncheon, but in this matter it slipped up. He had accepted an invitation before leaving Baltimore to lunch with his kinsfolk, the Misses Welsh, 1801 Center street. Accompanied by his son, Edwin Warfield, Jr., he drove to the residence of the Misses Welsh. The others in the party were entertained by the reception committee after luncheon, at which Gen. Warren Kiefer, member of the House of Representatives and at one time Speaker of that body, occupied the head of the table, with Col. Oswald Tilghman, the secretary of the State of Maryland, as his vis-a-vis.

Immediately after luncheon the party was conveyed to Spring Grove Park, at which place a large concourse had assembled. The society held its regular business meeting in the casino, which was attractively decorated with flags bearing the words, "Welcome to Marylanders."

Speech of Welcome.
John N. Garver, representing Mayor Todd, gave an address of welcome, to which appropriate reply was made by Albert Kern, president of the State society. Dr. David S. Bauslin was the next speaker. He is president of the Clark County Maryland Association, president of the Maryland Evangelical Church of the United States, and a member of the faculty of the Wittenberg College of this city.

Had Previous Residence.
The Rev. Mr. McCabe then introduced Secretary of State Tilghman. Colonel Tilghman delighted his audience with a speech which lasted more than half an hour, during which time he tried to claim a residence in Ohio. He said that he lived in the State for two years on one occasion, but that it was under somewhat peculiar circumstances, and the audience was convulsed with laughter when he told the story. He admitted that during the period referred to he had been a prisoner of war on Johnson's Island.

Adj. Gen. Clinton L. Riggs, and Col. R. S. Hill both told the audience of their pleasure in being with them. This wound up the address. In the Casino, and the crowd then circulated about the grove. The society had left nothing undone to make the visit the most comfortable and the pleasure of visitors. At night a reception was held in the city council chambers at the City Hall. At this reception there was present a vast concourse, who seemed to vie with each other in making the evening pleasant for the visitors.

Maryland Home-Coming.
Governor Warfield has been so impressed with the fact that he has decided to hold a Maryland homecoming next October. The time is to be Peggy Stuart day week. The governor says he will issue a proclamation to that effect.

His announcement was hailed with joy by the Ohioans, who say they will turn out in full force.

WIFE LEFT HER HOME, SAYS HUSBAND IS CRUEL.
Roberta Hunter, who says her husband's cruelty to her was such as to compel her to leave him, has appealed to the local courts to compel him to support herself and her child. She says she was married to John H. Hunter, who is employed in the Government Printing Office, in September, 1902, and remained with him until October, 1903, when on account of his cruel treatment she was driven from her home.

NEWBERRY APPOINTED HEAD OF NAVY PERSONNEL BOARD.
Assistant Secretary Newberry has been selected as president of a board of seven officers to consider desired personnel changes in the navy. Recommendations of chiefs of the Bureau of Navigation, of Secretaries of the Navy and of naval officers generally have so far not induced Congress to amend the present personnel law. What is most generally desired is to create a condition which will give officers a command rank at a much earlier age than at present.

Secretary Bonaparte has been considering who will serve with Mr. Newberry, and expects to select them in time to allow a report to be formulated for the next session of Congress.

Illinois Is Booming Cannon for President

UNCLE JOE CANNON, Speaker U. S. House of Representatives

Sucker State's Favorite for Next Presidential Nomination.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Unless "Uncle Joe" Cannon brings his artillery into action and "shoots" away the enthusiastic Illinois delegates to the State convention, he is destined to be endorsed for President. Senator S. M. Cullom, who has been down through the State feeling the public pulse, returned today, bringing with him the Cannon boom, which is large and well developed.

Will Indorse Cannon.
Discussing plans for the Republican State convention, he said that the Springfield meeting will indorse "Uncle Joe" for President unless the Speaker should forbid it. As the Senate primaries gave the Cullom wing absolute control of the convention, "Uncle Shelby's" information is considered accurate. It therefore depends on whether "Uncle Joe" thinks it wise politics to have Illinois go on record at this time.

Cullom Will Control.
The Cullom managers say they will have an overwhelming majority of the vote for the Speaker.

GIRL STUDENT ACCUSED OF STEALING RARE BOOKS

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 9.—Miss Jennie H. Morrill, a graduate student at the University of Wisconsin, stands accused of the theft of 29 rare books from the university library and the library of the State Historical Society.

The young woman came here from Knoxville, where she had taken a degree in the University of Tennessee. The books were found in a local warehouse in her name.

The SHINOLA CO. Rochester, N.Y.

U. S. SENATOR S. M. CULLOM, Of Illinois, Who Will Be Re-elected.

State delegates. Counties which Richard Yates carried on the popular vote elected Cullom delegates, and in the round-up it is estimated that the Senator has forty-two of the fifty-one Senate districts in the State. This means 102 Cullom men among the Republican members of the Legislature, or enough in the party caucus alone to insure his re-election, if all other Republicans refused to abide by the caucus action, which is not considered at all likely. It followed as a matter of course that having the bulk of the delegates the State convention will indorse Cullom for re-election.

Just how far the Cullom men will go in dictating the make-up of the new ticket cannot be foretold, but it is not believed the Senator will mix in the nomination of a ticket.

Primaries Puzzle Cullom.

Like many others, Senator Cullom is not an enthusiastic admirer of the new primary law after seeing its operation. It carried him in with a rush, but what puzzles the Senator is, if the primary law left nominations to the people, why the politicians have to do so much "fixing" after the primaries are held. Under the new act it was supposed that nominations would be made at the primaries, but Senator Cullom is amazed to find that there are just as many conventions and caucuses and just as much slate-making as ever.

The motorman lost control of his car at the top of the hill and it crashed down, gaining headway every moment and plunged into the car ahead with terrific force.

Three of the passengers of the Third Avenue car were thrown out into the street and injured. The car was stopped by J. Hood Wright Hospital. Scores of physicians attended the others.

Cardinal Rampolla Ill; Secrecy About Disease

Foremost Roman Catholic Diplomat of the World During the Time of the Late Pope Leo May Never Recover.

ROME, Aug. 9.—The health of Cardinal Rampolla is said to be in a serious if not critical state. In some quarters it is rumored that he may never recover. All attempts to discover the nature of the cardinal's illness have failed.

Cardinal Rampolla is now sixty-four years old. As papal secretary of state under the late Pope Leo, Rampolla was known to be the foremost Roman Catholic diplomat in the world. Leo placed the utmost confidence in his powers, and many of the policies for which the late Pope became noted have often been credited to the brain of Rampolla.

It is a matter of history that Rampolla was Leo's choice as his successor, and there is little doubt that the great cardinal would be Pope today had it not been for the enmity of Austria at the last conclave.

Immediately after the selection of Pius X as Pope, Rampolla went into retirement. He made it his boast at that time that never again would he take any active part in the diplomatic affairs of the church. Of late, however, the new Pope has been forced to recognize the great advantage of the cardinal's ideas and has consulted him on a number of subjects.

Increasing Agitation Drives Officials to Strange Means of Averting a Revolution.

BELGRADE, Serbia, Aug. 9.—The restlessness in the Serbian army is increasing and there is incessant agitation against the present dynasty. The government is afraid that a military revolution may break out, and is taking unheard-of precautions to prevent such a thing from happening.

The authorities have even gone so far as to dismiss all the non-commissioned officers who have served over ten years in the service as a means of preventing an outbreak.

STRIKE OF TYPOS LEADING QUESTION

Fight for Short Hours Before International Convention Next Week.

The most important question to come before the convention of the International Typographical Union at Colorado Springs next week will be the eight-hour strike, which has now been in progress in Washington and other points under the jurisdiction of the International Union for more than six months.

According to a report just submitted to the membership by International President Lynch the eight-hour contest has already cost the organization upward of $1,500,000—the exact figures up to May 31, the close of the fiscal year, being $1,563,729.10.

As the result of this vast expenditure about 40,000 members of the International Typographical Union are on an eight-hour basis.

The strike situation in Washington has remained practically unchanged for the past three months.
